

SILVERLEAF
WEALTH MANAGEMENT

Peter J. Daiker, has been serving individuals, families and retirement plans since 1990. As a true fiduciary, acting in the sole interest of the client's trust, integrity is the foundation of his approach in developing investment plans based on clients long - term goals and risk tolerance. His passion is to bring a sense of financial confidence to his clients, so they can focus on their dreams and families.

Peter has been a wealth advisor since 2000, first with A.G. Edwards and then with Wells Fargo Advisors. He started his financial career in 1990 with PEBSCO as State Director developing 457 deferred compensation retirement plans in the state of Nebraska. He received his B.S. degree in business administration with an emphasis on small business from the University of Dakota State. He also earned an Accredited Asset Management Specialist certification in 2000 from the College for Financial Planning. Peter holds his series 7 and 63 registrations with LPL Financial, and series 65 with Gladstone Institutional Advisory, as well as insurance licenses in multiple states. Peter joined Silverleaf Wealth Management in November of 2017 and continues to assist his clients with financial independence while allowing for greater opportunities.

Peter belongs to St. Margaret Mary's Church, is a member of the Exchange Club of Omaha, and is chairperson of Tee-Off- Against Child Abuse Golf Tournament. He is the proud father of Andrew, Alexander and Adam and enjoys working out, golf and outdoor activities.
